

International Women's Day

Chicago's third annual celebration of International Women's Day took place in March at the Union League Club of Chicago. A women's fair was followed by a luncheon.

With the theme of celebrating women's achievements on earth and in air, it was only appropriate to have Captain Jaden J. Kim, U.S. Marine Corps, serve as the guest speaker and discuss her experiences as a fighter pilot.

The event was presented by International Visitors Center of Chicago, International Trade Club of Chicago, Union League of Chicago, Idlewild Country Club in Flossmoor, Chicago Southland Chamber of Commerce and United Airlines.

(A.) Captain Jaden J. Kim, U.S. Marine Corps, was the keynote speaker at the event.

(B.) Terri Caldwell, Idlewild Country Club; Patrice Brooks, Southland Chamber; Lara Meyer; Marsha Pender, Union League Club; Peggy Parfendoff; and Bola Delano.
