

CHICAGO OBSERVED INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY with a fair and luncheon March 7 at the Union League Club of Chicago (one of the event's three sponsors, along with the International Visitors Center of Chicago and the International Trade Club of Chicago). State Treasurer Judy Baar Topinka gave the keynote address for several Chicago-area groups that focus on a wide-range of issues affecting women domestically as well as worldwide. ■

Women's Legacy Luncheon: 1) Miriam Nelson, M.D., signs her best-selling book Strong Women Strong Bones. 2) CBS2 Chicago news anchor/mistress of ceremonies Mary Ann Childers. 3) Vera Rigolin, M.D., and Annabelle Volgman, M.D. 4) Seated left to right: Pamela B. Strobel, Leslie Jackson, Monica Choca and Ruth Ann Gillis. Standing left to right: Margaret Amato, Mary Anne Emmons, Debra Blue, Ellen Caya, and Nichole Tillman. 5) Kathy Cunningham; Corrine Wood; and Sheila Zak. International Women's Day: 6) Laura Meyer, Peggy Parfenoff and Paula Maguire. 7) Isabel Stewart and Loren Leidinger Avila. 8) State Treasurer Judy Baar Topinka.

16 TCW APRIL

Today's Chicago
Woman

April
2003

6

7

8